NORMAL HUMBLER PACIFIC COLLEGE

Heavy Line Plunging by O. N. S. Football Athletes, A Factor In The Victory

The Normal football team has come into its own. Last Friday it handed the husky Pacific College squad a 19 to 6 defeat that sent the small crowd that was brave enough to attend in spite of the rain and mud, home rejoicing.

The defeat was a severe shock to Pacific as they were surely depending upon a victory to put them in the conference race which is developing into a real race with no team having a cinch.

Last year the Pacific squad defeated the Normals, 40 to 0 on the latter's field and it is no small wonder that they were confident of a victory. They made the statement in a paper that they "were coming to Monmouth after a hunk of bacon" It is rumored that all they got was a "piece of the rind".

Now, back to the game, itself! The Normals won the toss and elected a kick off. Scott kicked off to the 15-yard line. Pacific tried a few line plunges but couldn't make the necessary yardage so were forced to kick. The Crimson and Gray received the punt on their own forty-yard line and then started a regular procession of first downs with Ferguson, Scott, and M. Ray tearing off great gobs of yardage off tackle and thru guard.

This kept up until the five-yard line was reached. Here the Pacific ball was lost on down. It was a bad break when a touch down was so near but the Normal players were not dismayed in the least. They simply took Pacific's punt and proceeded to march down the field again.

This time their efforts were awarded for the first touch down. The kick for extra point failed.

The Normal kicked off and Pacific returned it fifteen yards. Here they made first down once and on the next play a shifty Pacific back slipped off tackle for a forty-five yard run and touch down. It was a very cleverly executed piece of work. "Fat" Ray, V. McGowan, Ferguson and "Red" Ray all had a chance to get him but the most they could do was to slow him up. Pacific's try for the extra point was blocked and the score was now 6 all.

In the second quarter O. N. S. again started a great offensive from their own forty yard line. It was during this drive that "Red" Ray slightly injured his weak ankle and

Exhibits and Programs To Mark Children's Book Week

November 9 to 15

Children's Book Week was originated in 1919 by the American Book Sellers Association and the Boy Scouts of America. It has become in five years a national annual campaign which thousands of communities use to stimulate interest in boys and girls books. Its influence is felt throughout the year in a growing consciousness of the importance of children's reading on character development.

The Independence Training School with the co-operation of the Parent retired for the rest of the half in favor of Johnson.

In this drive Ferguson, Scott, McGowan and Johnson alternated in carrying the ball to about the three yard line where Ferguson dived over for the second O. N. S. touchdown. Ferguson place kicked for the extra point score now 13-6 in favor of O. N. S.

From the next kick off the Normal team marched right down the field again to the one foot mark, where the whistle ending the first half, deprived the Crimson and Gray of another touchdown. Scott was knocked out in this last play, and he wasn't quite able to go back for the second half. Johnson shifted to Scott's position and Ray went in at his old position. The play all during the third quarter was more or less even, the Normal seemed to be playing a safe game and were content to hold Pacific. At this juncture Pacific tried to diversify the attack by mixing in a forward pass now and then. The first one they tried was intercepted by "Red" Ray and the only other tried was grounded by him. This seemed to indicate to them that the passing game was not to succeed.

No score was made in the third quarter but in the fourth period O. N. S. again opened up with their terrific line plunging and worked the ball to the six inch line where the ball was lost by a fumble. Pacific immediately kicked out of danger and the plunging started all over again. This time with the ball on the seven yard line "Red" Ray carried it over on two successive plays, making the final score 19-6.

This is the first game that O. N. S. has won in the Conference and jubilant feeling is running high. It is predicted that from now on things will be different and that much is yet to be heard from the Oregon Normal pig skin chasers.

Every man on the squad deserves comment upon his playing Friday. Every man was fighting every second and it's always the fighting team that upsets the dope.

Teachers Association will give a very splendid program and book exhibit. The Department of Libraries of the Normal will have a book exhibit.

For the Chapel period during the week programs have been planned and will be given for the purpose of creating interest in books. There will be given one afternoon, a motion picture for the children of the training school. The picture will be the well known children's classic, "Dog of Flanders."

RUSSIAN SINGERS WITH US TONIGHT

High Class Attraction Expected to Fill Auditorium Critics Commend Them

The Normal School is to have its next lyceum attraction on Monday November 3 in a program of Russian music admirably interpreted.

Four Russian singers, all of whom are musicians of note in their own country and have achieved prominence in this country as well, compose this group. These singers were proteges of the late Czar Nicholas of Russia, and before the Great War sang with the choir of one of the renowned Russian Cathedrals. When they came to this country they became a part of the choir of the celebrated St. Nicholas Russian Cathedral of New York City where their singing caused notable comment. Later when the present organization was formed and they appeared in concert, critics hailed them with enthusiasm.

The program features the beautiful music of Russia which is rendered with a feeling and artistry that are superb. The solo selections given are notable, but it is in the ensemble singing that the power and dignity of Russian music is most keenly felt. The organ like tonal quality achieved by these four singers is phenomenal. This is a high class attraction and will certainly attract all music lovers.

The program will begin at eight o'clock and all students will be admitted on the presentation of their student tickets.

Dolton (leaving): "Well, I must be off."

Agnes (coldly): "You are."

SOCIAL FESTIVITIES FOR HALLOWE'EN

Merry Parties Observe The Time When Ghosts Go Out and Prowl About

East was West and West was East surely on Friday night when the gay flappers danced with slant-eyed Chinese and picturesq Russians chatted with demure Holland maids.

Because it was Hallowe'en the students decided that they would like to make Friday's social hour different than the others. Some one suggested a costume party and the idea was gratefully taken up. When the news came out the property room became a popular place and many letters were written home asking for "something to wear."

The whole crowd caught the spirit of the affair and nearly everyone came dressed up in some way or another. There was plenty of punch and good music, things that would make any dance a success. When "Home Sweet Home" was played everyone went home with reluctance.

To celebrate the day of the Black Cat, the Yellow Pumpkin and the Wicked Witch, the Senior Cottage girls entertained with a party, Thursday evening, October 30. The living room of the cottage was attractively decorated, carrying out the spirit of the occasion. In the wierd light of jack-o-lanterns, and the cheerful glow of the fireplace, each room entertained the other members of the house and the guests with clever skits and stunts. Punch and cake were served while fortunes were being read. Guests of honor were: Miss Todd, Miss Macpherson, Mrs. Parker and Miss Laura Taylor. A house guest of Miss Darle Burton was also present.

Missionary Work

President Landers will address the Clackamas county institute on November the fifteenth; the Rotarians or the Rotary club of Salem at a luncheon on the nineteenth and the Coos county institute at Coquille on the twenty-fourth of November.

Dr. Schutte addressed the Chamber of Commerce at Corvallis on October twenty-first; the county teachers institute at Seaside on the twenty-fifth and he will appear before the Seminar in Education, Graduate School, University of Oregon November sixth and the Child Welfare association at Newberg November seventh.

THE FIRST SIX WEEKS

The first six weeks are over and half of our quarter gone

It has been heard that we have the largest attendance ever, we have the best classes yet; we ought to improve through the entire year with such a good beginning.

Have you heard anyone after making a brilliant recitation say: "I did not study, I never study. Don't you be fooled and think that just because someone can make a brilliant recitation and not study that it is possible for everyone. We have covered half of our work. Yes, and very apparently many of us have only half covered that. The manner with which you attack your school work will determine your ability for other tasks.

We have played two good games of football. No, we did not win the score but everyone who has seen the games says that they were good, hard games with our boys playing well. With the continual improvement of the team we will score yet.

We have had a very successful Junior dance; braved the mysteries of the initiations of each of the six groups and to top it all, the Moroni Olsen players in the delightful comedy Kempy.

Now let's leave these last six weeks for memories and look forward to a more successful six weeks.

CRIMSON RAMBLER

If Mr. Franseen's sentiment concerning our photos were to be taken as that of the whole school the main trouble with most of them would be that they "look too much like me."

Mr. Beattie (about to dictate a note to Introduction to Rural Teaching Class)—I have one thing here that I thought I had at hand, but I don't think I have it here.

Pete (making announcement in Chapel) Your pictures will be ready for you Monday. Be sure to come and get your proofs and to bring your best spirits with you.

(Nay, nay, Pete! The "days is gone" when spirits could be packed around in the hip pocket at your own sweet will.)

"Mrs. Bartholomew surely swings a strong arm." That's what Roland Johnson thought as he tried to slip in behind her during the "arm exercise" in one of the gym classes.

Dr. Schutte—Here, little one, let me see your pictures.

The "little one"—Aw—they weren't any good. They were double exposures.

Dr. Schutte—Oh, I see! Two-faced, aren't you?!

Miss MacPherson—What is a "Collective Biography"?

Clay E.—A biography that has been collected.

Is J. Butler a lady's man? The other day he asked a girl if she wasn't going to speak to him and she said: "Why, I thot you were a Normal Girl."

We noticed a lot of steam or "hot air" coming out of the basement at Indep. Is that the practice teachers on duty?

Where did you capture "it" Wednesday morning that made you all so happy???

Student's Aim: Where did Frances Sefton get her diamond?

I doubt if there's a girl in this school who doesn't wield a wicked powder puff every morning, noon and night. Yet when one is found during asthetic dancing period—Hm-mh! Not a girl in the whole school had one.

By the way, you might ask why most of the girls in the Aesthetic Dancing class wouldn't hurry for a dollar. They'll probably tell you they have "a bone in the leg". Too many bones as it is.

NO I DON'T KNOW

Oh yes, I was going to study, My intentions were very good. But when Mable asked to play tennis, I couldn't resist, who could? You bet I would have my lessons When I was called on next day I'd answer like a brilliant student You've heard them answer that way But when the next day came— And went—very much to my woe, The only brilliant recitation I'd made Was, No, I don't know.

—Mary Gregg

I WISH

I wish I were a big clock Just sitting on a desk. Then I'd have a chance to talk All day long, I guess, Without somebody hoping That someday I'd run out Of that essential "something" That moves my tongue about.

—Vera C. Wagner

Vegetarian Courtship

Benjamin Burdick, a dealer in garden produce, finally fell in love, and this was what he wrote to his lady love:

"My Sweet Patootie: "Can you learn to carrot all for me? My heart beats for you, the apple of my eye. Lettuce marry and be a happy pear. I have bean waiting long for you."

Strong Imagination

Alice—I hear you had a very pleasant birthday?

Tom—Oh, yes, you've seen these long racy Rolls-Royces?

Alice—Yes, yes!

Tom—Well, I got a pair of roller skates made that way.

Kennel Ellis Portrait Studio

Artist Photographers and in former years directors of photos and lighting in a number of Hollywood movie studios, have added another studio in Salem where they make better pictures for particular people. In Eugene everyone knows of the good work of Kennel and Ellis, and at the present time have the contract for the Organa Annual of the University of Oregon. Each new studio has a short advertising campaign, whereby the public is entitled to one large portrait, size 9 x 12, with the silk linen finish for 50c, issued through the coupon system. The Willamette University and other high schools went 85 per cent strong for the coupons besides fulfilling their obligations to their annual.

Coupons can be purchased at one of the most prominent and progressive business places in the city, Morlan and Son, school supplies. Samples can also be seen of the work at Morlan & Son, photo of Gov. Pierce, Prof. Straub, Dean of the U of O. and other prominent persons you may know. The idea of this advertising is for our pictures to reach competition, only one coupon to a person, or a family may be issued, coupons are good until used. Parties wishing more pictures can make arrangements for more at the studio and of different designs to meet your requirements from the same negative. We make this exceptional offer to introduce our work, our beautiful new studio in Salem, 429 Oregon Bldg. and to secure your good will.

O. N. S. BASKET BALL SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

At a meeting of The Willamette Valley Conference representatives, held at Monmouth last week, the Basket ball schedule for the coming season was drawn up and approved. While it is much too early to predict what O. N. S. will do this season, it isn't too early to say that all that possibly can be done to place a team at the top will be tried. Last year we finished third, with North Pacific Dentals and Linfield ahead of us. This year it is our desire to eliminate both of the strong contenders.

The following is the schedule for the coming season.
Jan. 9—Pacific College at Monmouth
Jan. 13—Linfield at Monmouth
Jan. 16—Albany at Albany
Jan. 23—North Pacific at Monmouth
Feb. 6—Pacific College at Newberg
Feb. 13—North Pacific at Portland
Feb. 20—Linfield at McMinnville
Feb. 27—Albany at Monmouth.

Besides these Conference games, other games will be scheduled with schools out of the Conference in order to fill out a longer playing season.

My "Roomie"

My roomie is pretty and graceful and fair,
With eyes like twin sapphires and fluffy gold hair.
Her figure is neither too short nor too tall,
Her hands they are slender, her feet
they are small;
She dresses to perfection, each
beautiful gown,
Is made of the most expensive in town.
Her sweet little voice is so silvery and fine,
Oh, girls, how I love this old "roomie"
of mine.

But I am so ugly and awkward and thin,
With eyes like two beads and a mole
on my chin;
My hair is streaked both yellow and brown,
And all about my face forever flies
'round,
My feet are so big and my hands
are, too,
And it seems that I fail in whatever
I do.
But what does it matter tho fate treat me so?
My "roomie" loves me just as truly,
I know.

Two doctors met in the hall of the hospital.
"Well," said the first, "What is new this morning?"

"I've got a most curious case.
Woman, cross-eyed; in fact so cross-eyed that when she cries the tears run down her back."

"What are you doing for her?"
"Just now," was the answer, "We're treating her for bacteria."

A young woman of a western town desired to show some kindness to an officer of the militia to whom she had taken a fancy. She therefore despatched this note:

"Mrs. Smythe requests the pleasure of Captain White's company at a reception on Friday evening."

A prompt reply came which read:
"With the exception of three men who are sick, Captain White's company accepts your kind invitation and will come with pleasure to your reception Friday evening."

Doctor:—Did you go to anyone before you came to me?

Patient:—Yes, I went to a druggist

Doctor:—What foolish advice did he give you?

Patient:—He told me to come to you

The fats and the leans and the in-be-

Did decide to unite as a club.

Eight members. Each was a par-

Just to strive for the calorie hub.

The fats and the leans and the in-be-

Ate according to calorie lore.

The fats ate less, the leans ate more
But the in-betweens ate as before.

Oh, the pounds took a drop and the pounds took a fall,
Thru the fate of this calorie lore;

And the leans became fat and the fat became lean
But the in-betweens stayed as before.

Mr. Gentle in Hospital Will Undergo Operation

Professor T. H. Gentle whose injury developed serious aspects late last week was taken to the hospital in Salem. There an X-ray picture showed that one vertebra had been crushed, interrupting the operation of several nerves which direct the muscles of the body. The specialists state that if the injury had been three inches higher, Mr. Gentle would have been entirely paralyzed. As it is, the injury, unchallenged, would cause him to spend the remainder of his life on crutches.

An operation was advised, which is described as not serious, and which the surgeons promise they have every reason to believe, will restore to Mr. Gentle the normal use of his body and limbs. This operation is to be performed in the near future by Dr. McClure, a spine specialist from Portland. Recovery is promised in six weeks. Mr. Gentle's family and friends are greatly relieved at the prospects of ultimate recovery and the faculty and students wish him the speediest of recoveries.

"Kempy" Was Good

Wednesday, October 29 at eight o'clock The Moroni Olsen Players presented "Kempy", a three act comedy to an enthusiastic audience that filled the Oregon Normal Chapel.

It was evident that those who had seen their performances of the past had not forgotten their excellence but had rather brought their friends that they too might enjoy a wonderful evening's entertainment.

Poor Kempy! He seemed to stick his foot in it all around, but then we will all admit a wrench is a handy thing, and for heaven's sake ma, its 10:30 and time to come to bed.

At least we are all sure that the next time they put in their appearance at Monmouth there will be a grand rush for seats and everyone is anxiously waiting for their next number "The Taming of the Shrew"

After It

There has been a fine turn-out for the Glee Club and the girls expect to put out some excellent work under the able direction of Miss Woodruff. She has spent a great deal of time and effort in getting the organization started.
